What is something that makes you think of Granny's kitchen, country morning teas and a good cuppa? Well at MOSHCC we think it is the simple, traditional, freshly baked scone.

In today's modern world have we lost the art of making scones?

At MOSHCC we have been debating this issue and about 50% say YES and 50% say NO. So it's time for you to help us resolve this dilemma.

It's time to dust off your favourite family scone recipes and join the

GREAT SCONE BAKE OFF

Instructions:

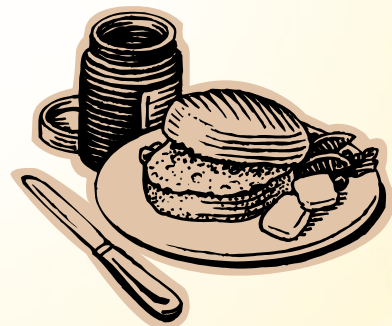

Deliver your scones to the Milang Old School House Community Centre by 9:30 am on the 3rd October.

You will be given an ID number.

Local Show Judge Susan Bagley will blind judge the entries.

The best 3 scones from your batch will be placed on a plate and judged on;

- Colour
- Taste
- Size
- Texture
- Top and Bottom

Prizes will be awarded for the best and in novelty categories as well.

Who will be judged as the Champion Scone Baker?

Come and join in the fun and we'll share the remainder of the scones for morning tea.
